

Data protection regulations

By participating in the tournament (name of the tournament), players agree that their names, scores, rank, ELO rating, age category and other tournament-related information will be stored by FESA (Federation of European Shogi Associations) and published on its websites.

Participants and visitors irrevocably waive the right to their own image (photographs, videos, sound recordings) and agree to the publication of all competition-related images.

This consent is granted for publications:

- websites of FESA and the associated national and local associations
- Facebook pages of the FESA and the associated national and local associations
- on the YouTube channels of the FESA and the associated national and local associations
- websites of the co-operation partners
- accredited newspapers, magazines and TV channels

Consent is granted both for current competition coverage and for chronicles in later years.
